Completion of Convertible Note Financing Up to US$30 million

London, England, Newfoundland and Labrador, Canada – Rambler Metals and Mining plc (AIM: RMM) (“Rambler” or the “Company”), a copper and gold producer, explorer and developer, today announces that it has executed the agreement for the unsecured, subordinated convertible note agreement for up to US$30 million with institutional investors including Riverfort Global Opportunities PCC Limited (“Riverfort”) and YA II PN, Ltd (“YA II”). The key terms of the convertible note have been disclosed in the RNS dated 30 June 2021. The Company has requested the initial advance of US$2.0 million today and expects to receive this shortly.

Toby Bradbury, CEO commented:

“This represents the delivery of the first leg of the financing package announced on 30 June 2021 and enables Rambler to maintain its momentum in the turn-around of the Ming Mine.

I wish to express our appreciation to Riverfort, YA II and all parties to this transaction for their assistance in completing this in a timely manner.

We will be making further announcements on our drilling, the Little Deer project and the financing within this quarter.”

ABOUT RAMBLER METALS AND MINING

Rambler is a mining and development company that in November 2012 brought its first mine into commercial production. Rambler has a 100 per cent ownership in the Ming Copper-Gold Mine, a fully operational base and precious metals processing facility and year-round bulk storage and shipping facility; all located on the Baie Verte peninsula, Newfoundland and Labrador, Canada.

Rambler's focus is to regain its production profile at 1,350 metric tonnes per day at 2% Cu in the course of 2021 and evaluate expansion opportunities from that base.

Along with the Ming Mine, Rambler also owns 100 per cent of the former producing Little Deer/Whales Back copper mines.

Rambler is listed in London under AIM:RMM.
